

Lohri Celebration

Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind

13th January, 2024

The festival of Lohri was celebrated with great enthusiasm in the Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind on 13th January, 2024. This festival was celebrated with all the teaching and non-teaching members in the college premises. On this occasion, the Principal of the college Dr. Punam Mor, explained the importance of Lohri festival and congratulated all the staff members on the festival and also inspired all the members to work with passion in the New Year. Makar Sankranti and Lohri are the festivals of goodwill and harmony. This festival was celebrated with the wish that the departure of winter and arrival of spring will bring prosperity in everyone's life. Dr. Keauty, Mrs. Aarti Saini, Mr. Praveen and Mrs. Raman from the cultural and music department participated well in this program. On this occasion, all teaching and non-teaching staff members of the college were present.
