

Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind
Event: Organisation of Talent Hunt Competition
4th October, 2025

A grand Talent Hunt Competition was held on October 4th, 2025 in the auditorium of Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind under the aegis of the Youth and Cultural Department, Chaudhary Ranbir Singh University, Jind. This day was worthy of being etched in the college's history, as the students' creativity, artistry and incredible energy illuminated the entire venue. The program was inaugurated by principal Dr. Poonam Mor and Mrs. Sunita Panchal, an alumnus of the college and an internationally renowned figure in the field of fine arts. The special guest was Ms. Roni Raman, a motivational speaker and social activist. In her welcome address, Principal Dr. Poonam Mor said that the talent of the students is our true asset. Such events not only bring out their hidden potential but also instill confidence and leadership in them. The true purpose of education is not limited to books, but rather personality development. During the first phase of this event, various competitions were organized by various departments for the students, such as poetry and speech-reciting competitions, Sanskrit shloka, acting, photography, rangoli and painting competitions, instrumental and singing competitions, quiz competitions, competitions related to Haryanvi art and handicraft competitions. In the second phase, participants participated enthusiastically in the dance competition and displayed their talents. The role of the jury was played by Dr. Keauty, coordinator of the Cultural Department and Mrs. Arti Saini, co-coordinator. The winning students in all these competitions were given prizes and certificates by Mrs. Sunita Panchal and the college principal for securing first, second and third positions. Chief Guest Mrs. Sunita Panchal, in her inaugural address, addressed the students saying that in the olden times, when students were not allowed to go out of their homes to study and resources were also scarce. Our time was then, and we have maintained ourselves from that time to today. Now, when there are no shortage of resources and all the technical systems and facilities are available to you, all of you students should follow the right path and decide your own destination. Special Guest Roni Raman inspired the students with her inspiring speech and music. She enthralled the entire pandal with her Haryanvi song 'Laado Beti'. These inspiring lines sung by her infused energy throughout the pandal. In the successful conduct of the entire program, teachers from various departments handled various tasks adeptly. At the end of the ceremony, Principal Dr. Poonam Mor and senior faculty members presented mementos of thanks to Chief Guest Mrs. Sunita Panchal and Special Guest Roni Raman. The entire teaching and non-teaching staff of the college were present on this occasion. Finally, the program concluded successfully with the singing of the National Anthem.
