Report

On August 26, 2025, The Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) and the Entrepreneurship Development Cell (EDC) at Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind organized a spirited Poster Making Competition focused on the theme of "Entrepreneurship." The event was graciously chaired by the esteemed Principal, Dr. Poonam Mor, and facilitated by Dr. Priyanka Sahni, the In-charge of both the IIC and EDC.

In her opening remarks, Dr. Poonam Mor highlighted the pressing issue of unemployment in India, emphasizing that self-employment represents a sustainable path toward livelihood in a developing nation. The competition aimed to inspire students to creatively express their entrepreneurial ideas through artistic representation. Participants were encouraged to illustrate the essential skills necessary for budding entrepreneurs to embark on their business ventures. A total of 57 enthusiastic students took part in the competition, showcasing their creativity and innovative ideas. The judging panel consisted of Mrs. Neelam and Dr. Pinky Mor, who carefully evaluated the posters based on creativity, relevance, and impact.

Vrinda, a third-year student pursuing a B.A. in Mathematics Honors secured the first position, Garima, a second-year student in B.A. Mathematics Honors got the second place and third position was secured by Khushi, a third-year B.A. student.

At the culmination of the event, honourable Principal of the College Dr. Poonam Mor presented the winners with their awards, commending their hard work and creativity. She remarked that competitions like these offer valuable platforms for students to showcase their talents and promote entrepreneurial thinking.

The event witnessed a notable attendance, including esteemed faculty members such as Dr. Geeta Gupta, Mrs. Aarti Saini, and other distinguished guests.
