Event: Guest lecture on ‘Shape your Future with Economics’
6th March, 2024

Department of Economics of Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind organized a guest lecture on 6th March, 2024. The theme of lecture was 'Shape your Future with Economics'. It indicates a focus on guiding students on career prospects and opportunities in the field of Economics.

Dr. Poonam, an alumna of the college and currently an Assistant Professor in Economics Department at M. D. University, Rohtak, shared insights on various job options available after completion of graduation and post-graduation in Economics. The diverse career paths mentioned, such as Assistant Professor, Agricultural Expert, Indian Economic Services, Indian Statistics Services, Investment Advisor, Tax Consultant, Commodity Trader, Economist etc. must have been very informative for the attending students.

It's great to note that 51 students from the Economics Department attended the guest lecture, showing their interest in exploring career possibilities within the field of Economics.

The presence of the college Principal, Dr. Punam Mor, and the stage moderation by Dr. Priyanka Sahni added to the academic and professional atmosphere of the event.

Dr. Poonam was honoured by the honourable Principal Dr. Punam Mor at the end of the program with a appreciation certificate and token of love and respect acknowledging her contribution and wishing her success in the future.

Overall, this guest lecture turned to be a great success. Dr. Punam Mor, Honourable Principal of the college congratulated Dr. Priyanka Sahni for this initiative.
