Event: Seminar on the topic 'The Educational Utility of Theatre:
from Knowledge to Experience'
13th November, 2025

On November 13th, 2025 the department of Hindi of Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind successfully organized a one-day seminar on 'The Educational Utility of Theatre: from Knowledge to Experience'. The seminar's objective was to introduce students to the various genres, technical aspects and the impact of audio-visual media. The program was organized under the able guidance of Dr. Sushma Garg, in charge of the Hindi department. Renowned choreographer and theatre expert Yogesh Sharma "Yogi", who served as the keynote speaker and resource person, introduced students to various aspects of theatre art through his impressive lecture and practical demonstrations. The first session of the seminar was informative and inspiring, with Yogesh Sharma "Yogi" delving into the definition, nature, purpose and various dimensions of theatre. He explained that theatre is not just about acting, but a creative way of expressing life, developing a person's personality, self-confidence and sensitivity. In the second session, he presented the art of theatre in practical terms, demonstrating various methods of acting, dialogue expression, body language and stage management techniques. They taught the students practical techniques of acting on stage and encouraged them to create creative performances. Mrs. Poonam Singroha, Assistant Professor in the Hindi department actively supported the successful organization of the seminar. Approximately 70 students participated in the one-day seminar and demonstrated a keen interest in the art of theatre. College Principal Dr. Poonam Mor honored the keynote speaker, Yogesh Sharma with a memento and a certificate of appreciation. Congratulating the Hindi department, she said that such events foster the creativity of students and provide them with opportunities for self-expression. At the conclusion of the program, Dr. Sushma Garg expressed her gratitude to the keynote speaker Yogesh Sharma, saying that such seminars contribute to the overall development of students and instil confidence and creativity in them.
