Event: Workshop on the topic 'Importance of Haryanvi Folk Songs in Indian Knowledge Tradition'
17th January, 2026

On January 17th, 2026 the department of Hindi of Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind organized a one-day workshop on the theme 'Importance of Haryanvi Folk Songs in Indian Knowledge Tradition'. The entire program was coordinated by the in charge of the Hindi department, Dr. Sushma Garg. The workshop was inaugurated by the principal of the college, Dr. Poonam Mor who stated that such workshops are highly beneficial for students as they provide an opportunity to learn about their culture and traditions. The workshop created a vibrant atmosphere filled with the essence of Haryanvi folk songs. A total of 45 students of the college participated enthusiastically in the workshop. In the first session, choreographer Mr. Yogesh Yogi conducted practical training sessions and taught the students the singing of folk songs related to folk culture. He familiarized them with the rhythm and beats of Haryanvi folk songs. In the second session, singer and choreographers Mr. Sudesh Kumar and Mr. Chetan provided practical training in the singing of Haryanvi folk songs. They also explained the significance of folk songs and their cultural heritage to the students. The workshop coordinator, Dr. Sushma Garg informed that such events would continue to be organized in the future. She emphasized that the objective of the workshop was to connect students with their culture and to make them aware of the importance of folk songs. The workshop concluded successfully.
