Event: Workshop on 'Role of Women in Entrepreneurship'
6th March, 2024

An online workshop on the topic 'Role of Women in Entrepreneurship' was organized by the Hindi Department of Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind on 6th March, 2024 under the chairmanship of the Principal of the college, Dr. Punam Mor. The workshop was coordinated by Dr. Sushma Garg, Head of the Hindi Department and the role of co-convenor was played by Mrs. Poonam Singroha and Mrs. Suman Mor, teachers of Hindi Department. The first session of the workshop was started with the welcome of Mr. Hitesh Kumar Arora by Dr. Sushma Garg. Keynote speaker Mr. Hitesh Kumar Arora is working as Controller of Administration & Finance, Haryana State Board of Technical Education, Panchkula. His Ph. D. is going on the subject of entrepreneurship. He has also helped in promoting 'Entrepreneurship Development' through 'Self-reliant Youth' programme.

In the second session of the workshop, the main speaker Mr. Hitesh Arora, while addressing the students said that “Entrepreneurship development is the need of the hour”. The main aspect of entrepreneurship is to start a business organization by foreseeing any present or future opportunity. He said that in 'Entrepreneurship' on one hand there is a possibility of earning huge profits and on the other hand there is a strong possibility of risk, uncertainty and other dangers. Entrepreneurship is actually the discovery of opportunities beyond resources. Making the students aware of the four basic aspects of entrepreneurship, he said that innovation, risk taking, resource mobilization, value creation and ability to discover new things etc. all these qualities are included in an entrepreneur. So he will always be able to make his mark in the society as a skilled businessman. In his lecture, he also drew the attention of the college students towards qualities like vision, passion, adaptability and flexibility. He said that, 'If you adopt all these qualities as a foundation in your own business, then you will definitely prove to be a skilled businessman'. The keynote speaker lecture was very informative as well as interesting for the students. In this program, the students learned and understood the qualities and nuances of starting their own business from the main speaker. About 76 students of the college participated enthusiastically in this workshop. College President Dr. Anshul Singla ji and Principal Dr. Punam Mor ji congratulated the Hindi department for the successful organization of the workshop. At the conclusion of the workshop, Dr. Sushma Garg expressed her gratitude to the keynote speaker Mr. Hitesh Kumar Arora Ji. On this occasion, teacher of Hindi Department, Mrs. Kavita Saini presented a memorandum of gratitude to the Hindi Department and the students. On this occasion, the presence of the college students and staff members made a commendable contribution in making the workshop successful.
