Event: Virtual Workshop on 'Indian Knowledge System:
Perspectives and Possibilities'
15th July, 2026

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind organized a virtual workshop on 'Indian Knowledge System: Perspectives and Possibilities' on July 15th, 2026. The objective of the workshop was to highlight the importance of the Indian knowledge tradition and its integration into higher education in line with the National Education Policy 2020. The program began with a welcome address by Dr. Priyanka Sahni, Assistant Professor, Department of Economics and Co-Coordinator, IQAC. Dr. Poonam Mor, Principal of the college also welcomed the keynote speaker and highlighted the rich heritage of the Indian knowledge tradition and its relevance in contemporary times. The keynote speaker, Dr. Rachna Sharma, Associate Professor, KIIT College of Education, Gurugram and UGC-Certified Master Trainer (Indian Knowledge System) delivered a detailed lecture on various dimensions of the Indian knowledge system, its educational significance and its effective integration into modern education. She emphasized the need to integrate Indian traditional knowledge with contemporary education. She stated that all aspects of the Indian knowledge tradition in the National Education Policy are rooted in the Vedic period. She also explained the Indian knowledge tradition by linking it to various examples from economics, mathematics, chemistry, social sciences, music, literature and other fields. The principal of the college Dr. Poonam Mor commended IQAC's efforts, stating that such workshops play a vital role in connecting students and teachers with the Indian knowledge tradition. At the end of the program, Mrs. Anjali Gupta, Associate Professor, Department of English and Senior Member of IQAC presented the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the keynote speaker, Principal and all participants. IQAC In-Charge Dr. Geeta Gupta, member Dr. Upasana, Mrs. Rekha Saini, Mrs. Anju and other teaching and non-teaching staff members were present on this occasion. The workshop concluded with enthusiastic participation and informative discussions.
