

Department of Music Vocal and Instrumental
Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind
Event: Lecture on Bhagavad Gita by Shri Gyananand Ji Maharaj
at HKMV Jind
21st February, 2025

On February 21st, 2025, Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind hosted a profound lecture by the esteemed Gita scholar Shri Gyananand Ji Maharaj. The event was attended by both students and staff of the college, creating a vibrant atmosphere for such an enlightening discourse.

During the lecture, Maharaj Ji emphasized the significance of the Shrimad Bhagwat Gita in personal and academic life. He encouraged students to incorporate the core principles of karma, knowledge, and devotion from the Gita into their daily routines. Maharaj Ji elucidated that confidence manifests clearly in the quality of one's work, particularly for those who approach their tasks with focus and determination. He underscored the importance of understanding one's duties and responsibilities, regardless of the circumstances, illustrating this concept with the first and last words of the Gita: "Dharma" and "Mam". His insights aimed to inspire students to navigate life's challenges with a positive mindset and a sense of purpose.

The Principal of the college, Dr. Poonam Mor Ji, expressed gratitude to Maharaj Ji for his enlightening talk and assured the audience that the principles discussed would be integrated into their lives. Dr. Keauty from the music department, echoed this sentiment, advocating for more such lectures in the future, highlighting their value to the college community. In a gesture of appreciation, the college management committee honored Shri Gyananand Ji Maharaj by presenting him with a shawl and a souvenir, recognizing his valuable contribution to the personal growth and spiritual enlightenment of the attendees. The event, marked by its insightful discussion and positive energy, left a lasting impact on all participants.

Glimpses and Media Coverage of the Event

