

N. C. C.
Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind
Event: Awareness Rally on the theme 'Ek Din, Ek Ghanta, Ek
Sath' to celebrate 'Swachhotsav'
26th September, 2025

On September 26th, 2025 the cadets of the N. C. C. wing of Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind organized a cleanliness awareness rally on the theme 'Ek Din, Ek Ghanta, Ek Sath' to celebrate 'Swachhotsav'. The rally was chaired by the college's Principal, Dr. Poonam Mor and conducted by N. C. C. convener Mrs. Anju and co-convener Dr. Keauty. The rally aimed to raise awareness among the local population about maintaining cleanliness. College Principal Dr. Poonam Mor kicked off the rally from the college's main gate and addressed the students in support of cleanliness. She stated that the main objective of the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan is to free urban and rural areas of India from open defecation, scientifically manage solid and liquid waste and encourage citizens to change their hygiene behaviours, leading to a clean and healthy nation. This campaign not only improves public health but also enhances the country's image and promotes tourism. Speaking on the occasion, N. C. C. in-charge Mrs. Anju said that cleanliness holds special importance in our lives. This campaign will not only make the students aware of the importance of cleanliness, but will also help spread awareness about cleanliness in the community. Principal Dr. Poonam Mor praised the students for their enthusiastic participation in this program and the students also pledged to always practice cleanliness. 45 N. C. C. cadets participated enthusiastically in this program. N. C. C. trainer Miss Jyoti also made an important contribution in the program.

Glimpses and Media Coverage of the Event

