

'Video Presentation Competition' for Celebration of International Day of Non-Violence

The 'Video Presentation Competition' organized by the Department of Economics in collaboration with NCC on October 4, 2023, to celebrate International Day of Non-Violence was a successful event. A total of 12 students participated in the competition, demonstrating their creative skills and illustrating powerful messages through their artwork. The aim of the competition was to promote the message of non-violence among the students.

The event witnessed the presence of esteemed individuals, including Principal Madam Dr. Punam Mor, NCC incharge Mrs. Anju, and Dr. Priyanka Sahni, Assistant Professor of Economics. They were joined by the honourable judges Mrs. Kranti, Assistant Professor of Political Science and Mrs. Sunita, Assistant Professor of Computer Science.

After the participants showcased their video presentations, the winners were announced and awarded prizes. The winners were recognized for their exceptional efforts in conveying the message of non-violence through their presentations. This event not only provided a platform for students to showcase their talent but also served as an opportunity to raise awareness about non-violence and its significance in society.
