Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind
Event: One Day N. S. S. Camp
26th September, 2025

On 26th September, 2025 a one-day N. S. S. camp was successfully organized by NSS volunteers at Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind setting a new example of community service and social awareness. The camp presided over by the principal of the college, Dr. Punam Mor and skillfully guided by N. S. S. Program Officer Mrs. Kranti, saw the enthusiastic participation of 72 volunteers. On this occasion, Dr. Punam Mor stated that this camp is not just a collection of activities, but each activity teaches the volunteers something new. Whether it is yoga, the cleanliness drive or the awareness rally, at every step, the students learn lessons in citizenship, leadership and social responsibility, which makes them better individuals for the future. The camp began with an invigorating yoga session, which prepared the volunteers physically and mentally. After this, all the volunteers together sang the NSS Lakshya Geet, demonstrating unity and dedication. The "Swachhta Abhiyan" conducted within the college premises taught the volunteers the importance of civic responsibility and inspired them to keep their surroundings clean. Extending their reach to rural areas, the volunteers organized an awareness rally named "Bhrashtachar Mukta Bharat" (Corruption-Free India) against corruption in the adopted village of Khokhri. The objective of this rally was to make the villagers aware of the adverse effects of corruption and motivate them to participate in its eradication. In the same vein, they also provided information about road safety rules to make people aware of safe traffic. After lunch, a special road safety workshop was organized, where detailed discussions were held on traffic rules and the importance of safe driving. The volunteers also made people aware of road safety rules on the main roads of the city. During an important session of the camp, the volunteers shared their views on the topic 'Role of NSS Volunteers in Corruption-Free India'. This session was extremely important for them, as it provided them with an opportunity to understand their civic responsibilities, develop leadership skills and strengthen their commitment to social change. This activity empowered them to become active participants in nation-building. The day concluded with the singing and dancing of the volunteers, which reflected their joy and enthusiasm.
