24th September, 2025

On September 24th, 2025 National Service Scheme unit of Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind celebrated NSS Day with great fervor in the college premises. On this special day, NSS volunteers demonstrated their spirit of service and enthusiasm by organizing several programs, prominently including a campaign to collect funds to aid people affected by the floods in Punjab. The children also made 'Happy NSS Day' cards with their own hands and presented them to all the teachers. Under the 'Seva Pakhwada', all students were administered the oath of 'Cleanliness is Service'. The event commenced with thunderous applause and a warm welcome for all the students and teachers entering the main gate of the college. This scene itself radiated positive energy.

The ceremony was presided over by the college principal, Dr. Poonam Mor, under whose inspiring personality and guidance the program was organized. The volunteers also presented Dr. Poonam Mor with a special NSS Day card adorned with NSS slogans. On this occasion, the principal, in her address stated, "NSS teaches us that collective welfare is more important than individual happiness. It inspires us to fulfill our responsibilities towards society and guides us in becoming better citizens". The program was successfully organized under the leadership of NSS Program Officer, Mrs. Kranti.

The volunteers launched a campaign to collect funds for the people affected by the floods in Punjab. This noble initiative reflected their inherent spirit of selfless service and philanthropy. Through this activity, they learned the important message that true happiness lies in helping others and that it is our moral duty to assist those in distress. This campaign was a direct example of the core NSS message, 'Not Me But You'.

To make this occasion even more special, the volunteers prepared 'Happy NSS Day' cards with their own hands. They respectfully presented these cards to their teachers. This activity was proof that through NSS, they not only learned the importance of community service but also assimilated the skill of expressing respect and gratitude towards others. At the end of the program, all the volunteers, understanding the importance of 'Seva Pakhwada', took a special pledge. In this pledge, they resolved to always be ready to serve their local community, society and the nation and to utilize their knowledge, skills and time for public welfare.
