Event: Signature Campaign to celebrate Constitution Day

26th November, 2025

On November 26th, 2025 Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind meticulously organized a distinctive Signature Campaign to commemorate Constitution Day, under the evocative theme, 'My Constitution, My Pride'. The primary objective of this initiative was to cultivate profound respect for constitutional values and heighten civic awareness among its students and volunteers. This esteemed program was proficiently executed through the collaborative efforts of the NSS Unit and the Department of Political Science, spearheaded by NSS Program Officer Mrs. Kranti and Mrs. Neelam from the Department of Political Science.

During the event, Principal Dr. Poonam Mor delivered a compelling address to the assembled students and volunteers, underscoring the seminal historical significance and contemporary relevance of the Constitution's genesis. She elucidated with comprehensive detail how the constitution serves as an emblematic representation of national unity and cohesion, concurrently galvanizing every citizen to conscientiously discharge their rights and responsibilities.

A notable cohort of 174 students actively participated in this signature campaign. Subsequent to their participation, they collectively recited a solemn pledge: 'I pledge to uphold the ideals, justice, liberty, equality and fraternity of the Indian Constitution'. The profound commitment of all attendees was formally attested through their signatures on this emotionally resonant declaration. The ambit of this celebratory event extended beyond the confines of the institution; supplementary signature drives were concurrently conducted in various urban precincts. This broader outreach facilitated enthusiastic participation from teaching faculty, non-teaching personnel, and members of the general populace, thereby transforming the campaign into a comprehensive community endeavor. Ultimately, this program afforded students and volunteers an invaluable opportunity to deeply apprehend the intrinsic importance of the Constitution, the nuanced principles of democratic governance, and the profound essence of civic entitlements.
