Event: Educational Tour to Jayanti Devi and Parshuram Temples
14th November, 2024

In order to promote ancient Indian knowledge and tradition, the students of the Sanskrit Department of Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind visited Jayanti Devi Temple and Bhagwan Parshuram Temple, Ramrai, on 14th November, 2024. The event was presided over by the Principal of the college, Dr. Poonam Mor. Dr. Neelam Rani, the coordinator of the program said that the purpose of this religious tour is to keep the students connected with their ancient Indian tradition. In this event the students were made to visit the famous Jayanti Temple of Jind and it is said that the name of the district was derived from the name of this temple and at the time of Samudra Manthan, Dev Senapati Jannat had sought the blessings of Vijay by worshipping at this place to get the Amrit Kalash from the demons and had taken the Amrit Kalash to the god. This is a very old temple, the evidence of which is in the museum located in it. Provision of langar food continuous here throughout the day for the poor and helpless people. As part of the series, the students also visited the Bhagwan Parshuram Temple and Sanskrit College located in Ramrai village. 22 students participated in the event. Mrs. Usha Devi and Mr. Rajpal played a special role in the successful organization of tour.
