The Sanskrit Department of Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind organized an essay writing competition on the occasion of 'International Mother Language Day' on 21st February, 2025 under the chairmanship of the college principal Dr. Poonam Mor in which the students participated enthusiastically. On this occasion, the program coordinator Dr. Neelam Rani said that it is celebrated every year on 21st February (Phalgun), the purpose of which is to preserve linguistic diversity, promote various mother tongues and protect linguistic rights. Whose slogan is 'Promote mother tongue education, respect cultural diversity'. This day is very important for a multilingual country like India. Sanskrit language is not only one of the oldest languages of India, but it is also called the mother of mother tongues. It is a scientific, structured and grammatically perfect language. Sanskrit language is the language of ancient texts, the official language of India and one of the oldest languages in the world from which many modern languages have developed. Many books related to science, philosophy and mathematics are available in Sanskrit language. This language is a symbol of Indian culture, traditions and values. In this competition, Ms. Neetu, Ms. Neha and Ms. Aarti got first, second and third place respectively. In this competition, total of 20 students participated.
