Event: An Extension Lecture on the topic of Domestic Violence
10th September, 2024

On September 10th, 2024 an extension lecture on the topic of domestic violence was organised by the department of Sociology of Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind. The program was presided over by the Principal of the college, Dr. Punam Mor and conducted by the head of the department of Sociology, Mrs. Jyoti. Associate Professor Mrs. Rachna Khanna of Gandhi Memorial National College, Ambala played the role of the main speaker in the program. While giving information about domestic violence to the students of the college, Mrs. Rachna Khanna said that domestic violence is a method of coercive controlling behaviour, which includes physical abuse, emotional or psychological abuse and sexual abuse. She said that the most victims are women, they are abused intentionally. Therefore, crimes of domestic violence are increasing in some form or the other, that is why many cases are seen daily, many women are not able to complain against this crime because they are not aware of these laws Protection of women from Domestic violence Act 2005, it is an act based by the parliament of India. The main objective of this act is to protect women from domestic violence and provide legal aid. 50 students participated in this program. Dr. Anshul Singla president of the Managing Committee of the college and Principal Dr. Punam Mor congratulated the Department of Sociology on the successful organisation of the program.
