Event: Awareness Lecture on 'Role of Youth in Strengthening Democracy' in village Haibatpur

17th March, 2026

Under the joint aegis of the Electoral Literacy Club and the Department of Hindi of Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind an Awareness Lecture on the topic 'Role of Youth in Strengthening Democracy' was organized in village Haibatpur on 17th March, 2026. The objective of this programme was to create awareness among rural people and students about the importance of voting in a democracy. The bus carrying the students to Haibatpur was flagged off from the college campus by the Principal, Dr. Poonam Mor. Addressing the students on this occasion, she said that the active participation of youth is essential for strengthening democracy. She encouraged the students not only to cast their votes but also to motivate others in society to participate in the voting process. The programme was coordinated by the Convener of the Electoral Literacy Club, Dr. Sushma Garg. While addressing the villagers of Haibatpur, she stated that voting is the fundamental right and duty of every citizen. She emphasized that democracy becomes strong and vibrant only when every citizen exercises his or her right to vote responsibly. On this occasion, Mrs. Rekha Goyal, faculty member of the college, delivered her views in the awareness lecture. In her address, she highlighted the importance of democracy and motivated both students and villagers to become aware about voting. She further stated that through fair and conscious voting, youth can play a significant role in the development of the nation. At the end of the programme, Dr. Sushma Garg, Convener of the Electoral Literacy Club, expressed her gratitude to the Sarpanch of village Haibatpur and the villagers for their cooperation. Approximately 40 students of the college participated in the programme, which concluded successfully with great enthusiasm.
