Event: Rangoli Making and Essay Writing Competition on the occasion of National Voters' Day
27th January, 2026

On the occasion of the 16th National Voters' Day, Rangoli Making and Essay Writing Competition was organized in the campus of Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind by the Electoral Literacy Club on 27th January, 2026. The main objective of the programme was to create awareness among students about their voting rights and democratic responsibilities.

The programme was presided over by the Principal of the college, Dr. Poonam Mor. In her presidential address, she appreciated the enthusiasm and creativity of the students and stated that such competitions not only help in nurturing talent but also create awareness about social and national duties. She encouraged the students to actively participate in such meaningful activities in the future as well.

The entire programme was successfully coordinated under the able guidance of Dr. Sushma Garg, Coordinator of the Electoral Literacy Club. While addressing the students, she emphasized that democracy becomes strong only when every citizen exercises their right to vote. She further added that such programmes play a vital role in shaping students into aware, responsible and sensitive citizens.

The theme of both the competitions was 'No Voter to be Left Behind'. Through colors and ideas, the students effectively highlighted the importance of voting, the responsibility of voters and active participation in the democratic process. In the rangoli competition, students creatively conveyed strong social messages, while in the essay writing competition, they expressed their views on the necessity of voting, the role of young voters, and a fair and inclusive electoral system.

Approximately 10 students participated in the rangoli competition, while around 20 students took part in the essay writing competition with great enthusiasm. The students securing first, second and third positions will be honored with cash prizes by the District Election Office, Jind.

The programme was conducted smoothly and successfully. At the conclusion of the event, the Principal Dr. Poonam Mor congratulated Dr. Sushma Garg for organizing such a meaningful and awareness-oriented programme and extended her best wishes to all the participating students for their bright future.
