Electoral Literacy Club

Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind

Event: Two-days Camp for making 'Voter Card'

27th and 28th July, 2024

The 'Electoral Literacy Club' of Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind organized a Two-days Camp for making 'Voter Card' on 27th and 28th July, 2024 in the college premises under the chairmanship of the college principal Dr. Punam Mor, in which she addressed the students and said that India is a democratic country, where every citizen has the right to choose his representative. Voting is an important part of this process, through which the public conveys its voice to the government. Voting ID card is required to maintain the sanctity and veracity of this process. Therefore, every citizen should ensure that they have a valid voting identity card so that they can exercise their democratic right properly. The coordinator of this program was Dr. Neelam Rani and club member Shri Narayan Singh. Shri Narayan Singh (BLO) said that this campaign will be run on the coming Saturday and Sunday as well, so that along with the students, the nearby citizens who have not got their voter ID card made due to some reason, can get their voter card made. So that everyone can participate enthusiastically in the upcoming elections and make their valuable contribution in building the future of the country.
