

Electoral Literacy Club

Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind

Event: Workshop on Election Awareness

25th September, 2024

A one-day election awareness workshop was organized by the 'Electoral Literacy Club' of Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind under the chairmanship of the college principal Dr. Poonam Mor. The theme of which was 'Festival of Elections, Pride of the Country'. The coordinator of the program, Dr. Neelam Rani said that this program was organized keeping in mind the upcoming assembly elections, the main objective of which is to provide information about elections to the students and to encourage more and more students to participate in the elections. Under this one-day workshop, the students took an oath to vote for the eligible candidate by being secular and competitions like slogan writing, poster making and short film making etc. were organized. In which Ms. Ritika, Sneha, Neelam got first, second and third place respectively in the slogan writing competition, Hrithik, Sneha, Sushila got first, second and third place respectively in the poster making competition and Ms. Manula got first place in the short film making competition. Dr. Sushma Garg and Dr. Pinki played the role of the jury in these competitions.

Glimpses and Media Coverage of the Event

