Event: Training Session on 'Sajag Bane – Crime against Women and Measures for Prevention' 19th September, 2025

A training session on measures to prevent crimes against women was organized by the Women's Cell of Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind, on September 19th, 2025. The session was presided over by the college principal, Dr. Poonam Mor and conducted by the convener of the Women's Cell, Mrs. Neelam, and co-convener, Dr. Neelam Rani. The training session was conducted by SI SHO Mrs. Monika and her team from the Women's Police Station, Jind. Addressing the students as the main speaker, she advised them to call 112 in case of any incident of harassment or assault. She also advised them to inform their family, teachers or friends first if such an incident occurs. In cases of domestic violence or assault, she advised them to call the cybercrime helpline at 1930. Her team also provided self-defence training to the students, demonstrating how to protect themselves in case of a sudden attack or harassment. College Principal Dr. Poonam Mor addressed the students, emphasizing the need to raise awareness in society and protect women's rights to prevent crimes against women. She stressed the importance of working together to stop violence and discrimination against women. The convener of the Women's Cell, Mrs. Neelam, appealed to the students to be vigilant against crimes against women, saying, "Let us all unite against crimes against women. Be aware of your safety and fight for your rights. We must promote a sense of respect and security for women in our society. Let us all work together towards a safe and equal society." Approximately 60 students from the college participated in this program. The presence of Dr. Rachna Dalal and Dr. Meena added significant value to the program.
