On February 29th, 2024 a 'Case Study Competition' was organized by the Commerce Department of Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jind on the subject of 'Indian Contract Act & Consumer Protection Act'. The event was presided over by the Principal of the college, Dr. Punam Mor and conducted by Associate Professor of the Commerce department Mrs. Rekha Saini. The objective of the competition was to provide a platform for students to apply theoretical knowledge to real-life scenarios, thereby enhancing their analytical and problem-solving skills. Dr. Upasana, Head of the Commerce Department also expressed enthusiasm about the competition, highlighting its role as a bridge between learning in the classroom and practical application. The competition involved analyzing various case studies based on reallife situations and providing solutions to different legal issues. Active participation from five teams was observed, with each team delivering commendable performances. Despite the competition being tough, it demonstrated the students' dedication and passion for law. Kanika, Riya, and Ishika secured the first position, while Chhavi, Parneet Kaur, and Teena secured the second position. The winning teams were praised for their comprehensive understanding of legal principles and clarity in arguments. Dr. Anshul Singla Ji, the President of the Governing Body, and Principal madam Dr. Punam Mor congratulated the entire Commerce Department and students for the successful execution of the program. They noted that such initiatives serve as a significant example in promoting critical and legal awareness among students.Senior faculty member Dr. Sushma Hooda was also present as at the event. The successful execution of the program was attributed to the substantial support from Preksha Jain, Arju Bansal, Mrs. Kirti Bansal, and Dr. Monika.
