18. Objective (100 Words)	The objective of the invited talk on Basics of IPR and its Importance for Innovators and Entrepreneurs is to create awareness among students, faculty, and budding entrepreneurs about the fundamentals of Intellectual Property Rights. The session aims to familiarize participants with different forms of IPR, their legal significance, and the role they play in protecting innovations, research outputs, and creative works. It also seeks to encourage an innovation-driven mindset and responsible use of intellectual assets.
19. Benefit in terms of Learning/Skill/Knowledge obtained (150 Words)	The invited talk provides participants with a clear understanding of Intellectual Property Rights and their relevance in academic, research, and entrepreneurial domains. It helps students and innovators recognize the value of protecting ideas, inventions, designs, and creative works through appropriate IPR mechanisms. The session enhances legal awareness related to patents, copyrights, trademarks, and designs, thereby reducing the risk of infringement. Participants gain insights into commercialization of innovations, technology transfer, and startup growth supported by IPR protection. Faculty members benefit by learning how to safeguard research outcomes and publications. Overall, the program strengthens innovation culture, promotes ethical practices, and equips participants with practical knowledge essential for career development, startups, and contribution to a knowledge-based economy.

Report

On Saturday, November 8, 2025, under the joint auspices of the IIC and IPR Cells of Hindu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, an invited talk on the topic "Basic Principles of Intellectual Property Rights and Their Importance for Innovators and Entrepreneurs" was organized. The program was chaired by the college's Principal, Dr. Poonam Mor. At the beginning of the program, the college Principal welcomed everyone and expressed her views on the relevance of this invited talk. The program was coordinated by Dr. Priyanka Sahni, IIC Convenor, Mrs. Rekha Saini, IPR Convenor, and Mrs. Neelam, IPR Co-convenor. The program aimed to familiarize students with the concept of intellectual property rights and its importance in innovation and entrepreneurship. In the first session, Assistant Professor Kumari Lalita Sharma from the Department of Law, Chaudhary Ranbir Singh University, highlighted the basic concepts of intellectual property rights and explained to the students about patents, trademarks, copyrights, designs, etc., using detailed examples. The second session was attended by Dr. Jyoti Ladwal,

Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce, Government College. She explained that IPRs provide legal protection to an innovator's creativity, providing them with financial benefits and recognition. Dr. Jyoti encouraged the students to protect their innovations and join initiatives like "Make in India." The third speaker was Dr. Deepak Malik, Assistant Professor, Department of Economics, Chaudhary Ranbir Singh University. He explained that intellectual property rights are an entrepreneur's greatest asset, providing long-term sustainability and intellectual recognition to their products, ideas, and brands. At the end of the program, the college's Principal, Dr. Poonam Mor, who is also the President of IIC, congratulated all the members of IIC and IPR for the successful conduct of the program and said that intellectual property rights are essential for innovation and research in today's times. She encouraged the students to gain knowledge in this field and make creative contributions in the future. All the students participated enthusiastically in the program.
