

Women Cell –(2015-16)

The women cell of the college has always been positively active in making the students aware and awakened toward the needs of the present time and society and inculcate in themselves the required knowledge and qualities keeping in view the this purpose a lecture was organised to tell the students about their legal rights, cyber crime, RTI, free legal aids etc. Sh.Vijay Kumar Sharma, advocate and ex. Senior librarian, distt. Library, Jind along with Ms. Pooja Verma were the chief speakers on the occasion.

A Slogan Writing Competition was held on the topic ‘‘Beti Bachao Beti Padhao’’ Nitisha B.A.II (1229), Preti B.A.III(2288) and Sunita B.A.III(2175) got 1st, 2nd and 3rd position respectively.

In another programme Sh. Ramphal Sharma, BJP perdesh adhayaksh Sh.Sandeep Gosain from LIC awakened the girls towards the need of adopting ‘‘Perdhaan mantra Bima Yojana’’ specially programmed for girls. They distributed forms also for this plan.

Mr Pawan Kapoor, PRO to S.P. addressed the students about some safety measures for their personal security and told them about the various problems where they can get police help without delay.

Mrs Karminder Kaur, Distt. Women protection Officer-Cum-Child Marriage prohibition Officer Jind sensitized the students about various legal acts made to protect the girls from violence and prevent child marriage.

Women and child development department, Jind organized a distt. Level seminar on ‘‘Beti Bachao Beti Padhao’’. In This seminar Mrs. Anita Garg, distt. Child protection-Cum-Women & Child Development Planning Officer Dr. Prabhu Dayal, Deputy CMO Jind, Ms. Parveen CDPO and Ms. Meenakshi Hooda, Protection officer were present on this occasion. They sensitized the students about malnutrition in women and children, gender discrimination and other such issues.

Members of Sadbharama Prachar Manch held a lecture in which Mr. Deepak Goyal, the chief speaker awakened the girls towards drug addiction and stress-management. He talked about positive attitude, moral strength, female foeticide and other women related issues.

International women's day was celebrated by organizing a seminar by women and child protection department. Various members addressed the students. Protection officer Ms. Karminder Kaur, Child Protection Officer Ms. Babita Verma and counsellor Ms. Mamta Sharma told the students about various schemes launched by Govt. To protect women and children, chief among them were 'Aapki Beti Humari Beti', JS Board ICDS etc. They inspired the girls to fight against cruelty and discrimination.

Apart from all these activities, a team of our students won first prize in the Inter Distt. Quiz Competition on Road safety and brought laurels for the college.

In this way, the women cell of the college contributed a lot towards training the students to walk hand in hand with the time.